DISCUSSION POINTS

Sl No.	Agenda point	Discussion points/Remarks
CELL/SWC/15.1	Presentation of minutes and review of action items of the previous meeting	The minutes of the previous meeting were approved, and all action items were addressed and closed following the implementation of appropriate measures.
CELL/SWC/15.2	Discussion on Student Welfare Issues	15.2 (a) Ms. Alna Khaleel, Chairperson of the Students Union raised the issue of slippery pathways from the parking lot to the campus during the rainy season. She requested that the pathways be made slip-proof before the onset of next monsoon. 15.2 (b) Ms. Khaleel also asked about the feasibility of allowing the sports team of the college to make use of the college's fitness centre, free of cost during inter-zone/university match seasons.

		15.2 (c) Dr. Silvy Mathew, the Student Welfare Officer sought the council members' opinion on changing the pattern of the college uniform for female students. Ms. Alna Khaleel conveyed that majority of the female students were comfortable with the current uniform. She highlighted that even when the students were permitted to forgo the waistcoat during the previous summer, only a few opted to do so. She suggested that switching to a lighter fabric would be a better alternative to complete pattern change.
